COLLEGE

What Does It Mean?

To its faculty and staff, La Sierra College means crowded and eventful days. It means class appointments, religious exercises, and extra-curricular responsibilities. Beyond these it means pleasant associations with inspiring learners and consecrated colleagues. La Sierra College stands for a way of life and is a microcosm — imperfect, to be sure — of a better and braver world.

G. T. Anderson

President
La Sierra College

College means growing in the richest and fullest sense. It means living more abundantly as a result of many activities enjoyed together — activities that have stimulated growth, spiritually, mentally, physically, and socially.

College means making important and far-reaching decisions which play a vital part in shaping our characters now and in directing the course of our lives in the years to come. La Sierra College means preparing ourselves for lives of Christian service, growing "in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man."

Joe Verska

The fundamental moving events of the year are the meetings of La Sierra's Board of Trustees. Left to right: H. L. Shull, A. C. Nelson, K. F. Ambs, G. T. Chapman, F. W. Schnepper, H. H. Hicks, C. L. Bauer, P. L. Christian, G. T. Anderson, R. A. Smithwick, R. C. Baker, and Carl Becker.

WILBURN McCLINTOCK, Staff Photographer, snapped and processed 178 shots of LSC drama to light up the 1950 METEOR.

EVENTS

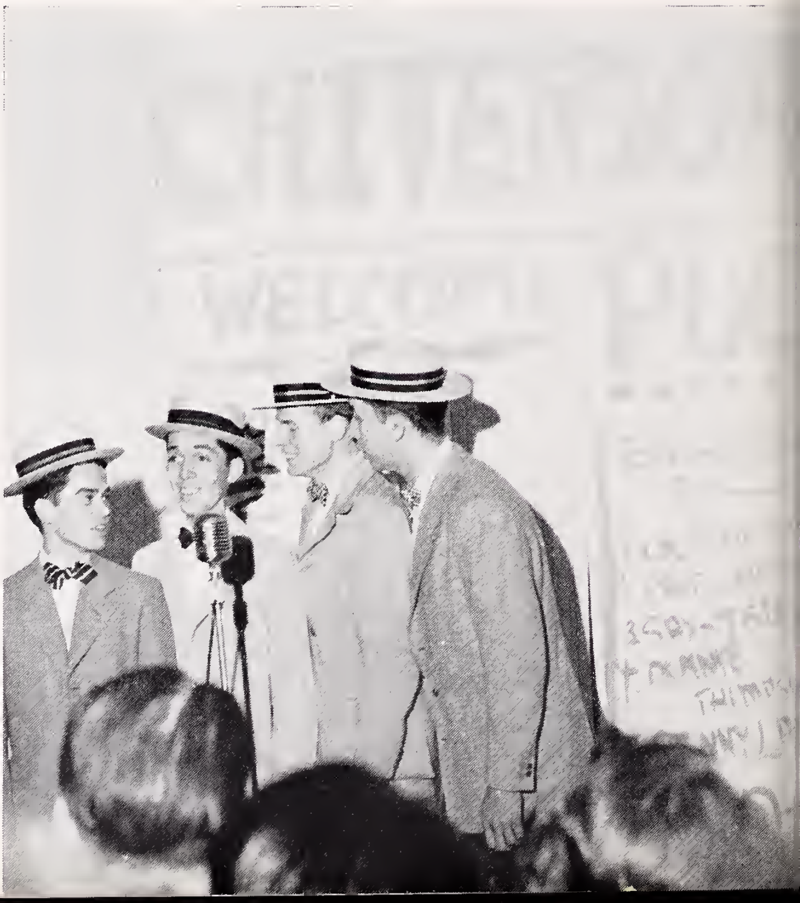
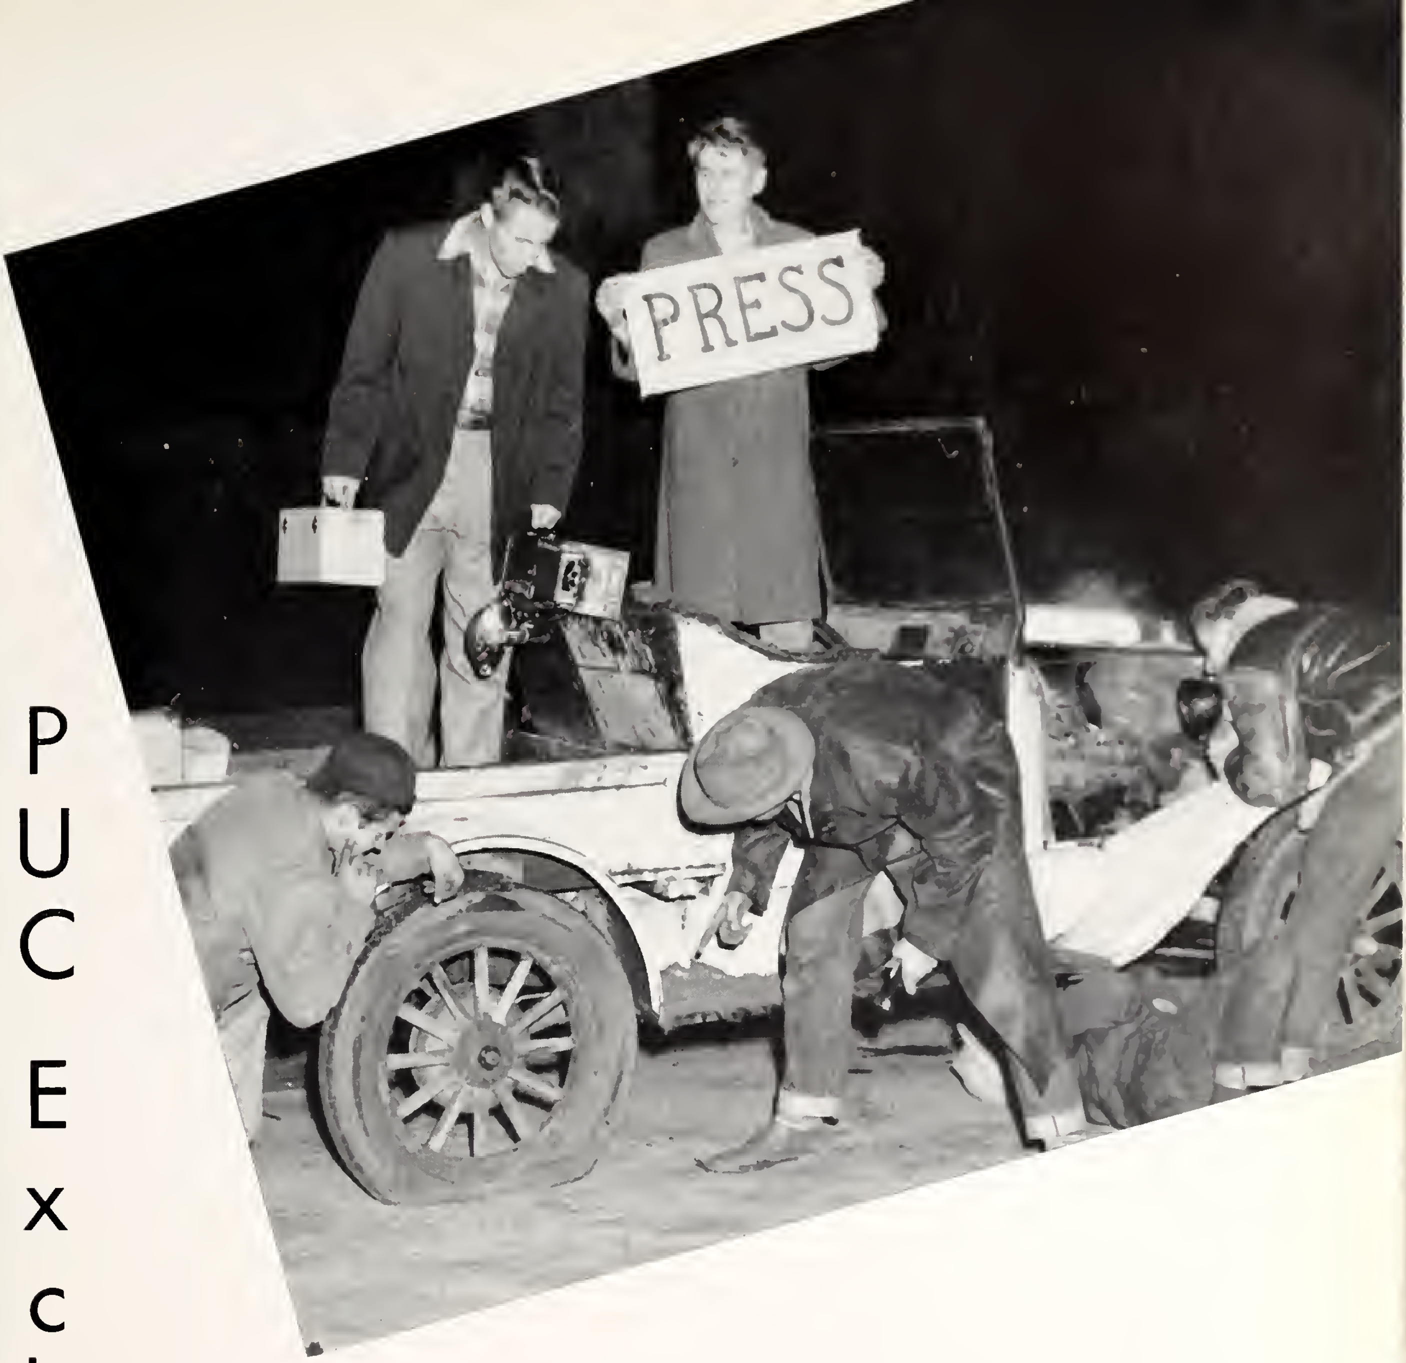
Chalmers-Richards brothers lyricize for PUC-ites.



PUC Exchange



The CRITTER staff fold up with a flat tire and steaming motor enroute to meet the PUC delegation. Staff photographer Wilburn McClintock shoots the mixup while Eugene Nash clutches an extra camera, Bob Lorenz forlornly holds caption, Ray Bartel inspects tire, and David Greene peers under the hood. But the day was saved when the Press thumbed rides to the meeting place at the Arlington Bank.

Noel Newhard, Yvonne Yip, Larry Moore, Mabelle Keiger, William Garcia, and Merrillyn Jacobson act in unison as MC at the Good Form Banquet. Joe Verska at the mike.

Bon Voyage

Madamoiselle Weidner!

Meet "a little bit of Europe" in the vivacious Dutch girl, Ann Marie Weidner, who was born in Switzerland, lived in France and Holland, helped in the Underground during the war, and finally came to America for health reasons. Now that Ann Marie is returning to Switzerland to become Mrs. Charles Hipley, friends here will remember her as the friendly Dutch girl with her fluent French — and English now — who brightened the halls of Angwin.

Highlights of the year's events were frequent informal gatherings at the gym, when games and skates broke into the college routine.

College Means

To visitors and friends, Campus means La Sierra's famous palms and Spanish architecture, its broad lawns and ivied walls. And it means College Hall and convocations.

To the student, Campus means the clang of the rising bell at six, and the admonitions of early morning worship. It means horrible odors issuing from bell-crowned San Fernando Hall, and Einsteinian accounting problems. And it connotes band concerts and barn parties and sitting with that special friend listening to "basso profundo" Jerome Hines sing Curci's "L'Ammore Mio."

To the teacher, Campus means stacks of uncorrected papers, and the intellectual stimulation of inquiring youth. It means the deep satisfaction of watching a student mature in his ideals and his vision for service as a result of the teacher's effort, the student's cooperation, and God's grace.

Yes, Campus means all these. It is a way of life, enriching, rewarding, and unforgettable.

Some are as fresh and unpretentious as new-mown hay; others are as polished as newly finished wood — all are as eager as friendly puppies, as full of wonderment as immigrants to the land of promise. There is the freshman girl with the beautiful smile, and another with a lyrical voice — latent and developed talents are profuse. There is the sophomore with a yen for flying, and another with a three-point scholastic average! These are underclassmen of whom we are proud.

WILFRED J. AIREY, Ph.D.
Professor of History

History is the record of man's hopes and achievements, his disillusionments and failures. The familiar "It is written," when spoken of divine history, implies the profound truth that man's preserved memory of his past can illuminate his present and portend his future. Mr. Airey's careful interpretations of this portentous record are delivered with appropriate profundities.

College Means

Relax!
Why?
Because of all human experience play is the most spontaneous expression of personality,
because play is a sure revealer
of character,
because play is an excellent refresher
of the human spirit.
Play enters into much more of living than is usually recognized, for play is doing something purely for the love of it.
Thus all of living may be play
if the gift of love is cultivated and directed.

PLAY

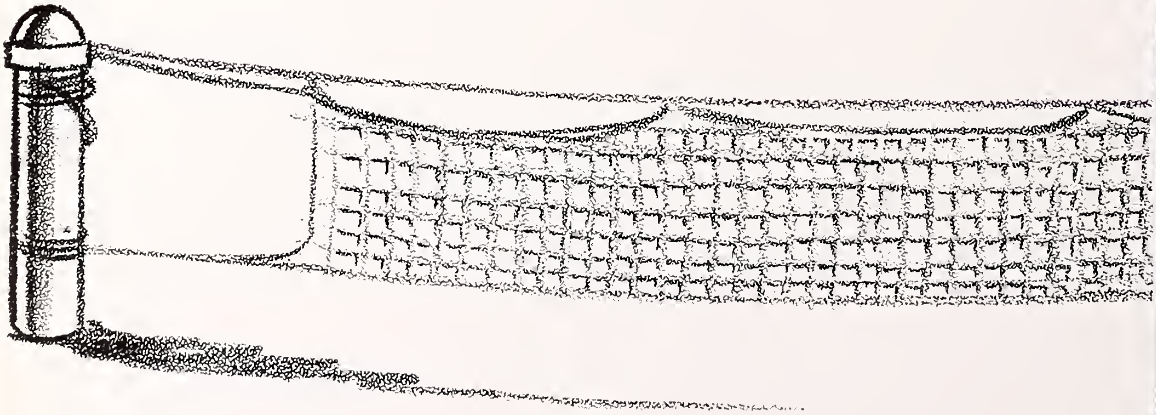
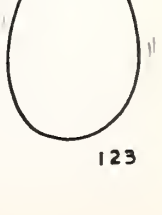
CHAMPIONSHIP

Few spots on the campus compete with the tennis courts in popularity. Here friends meet and temporarily forget mathematics, marketing, masterpieces, music, machines, and meals.

Ruth Garlick reaches for a high one.





The girls' basketball teams pose following a Campus Day game in which the "Natives" (left) topped the "Tourists."

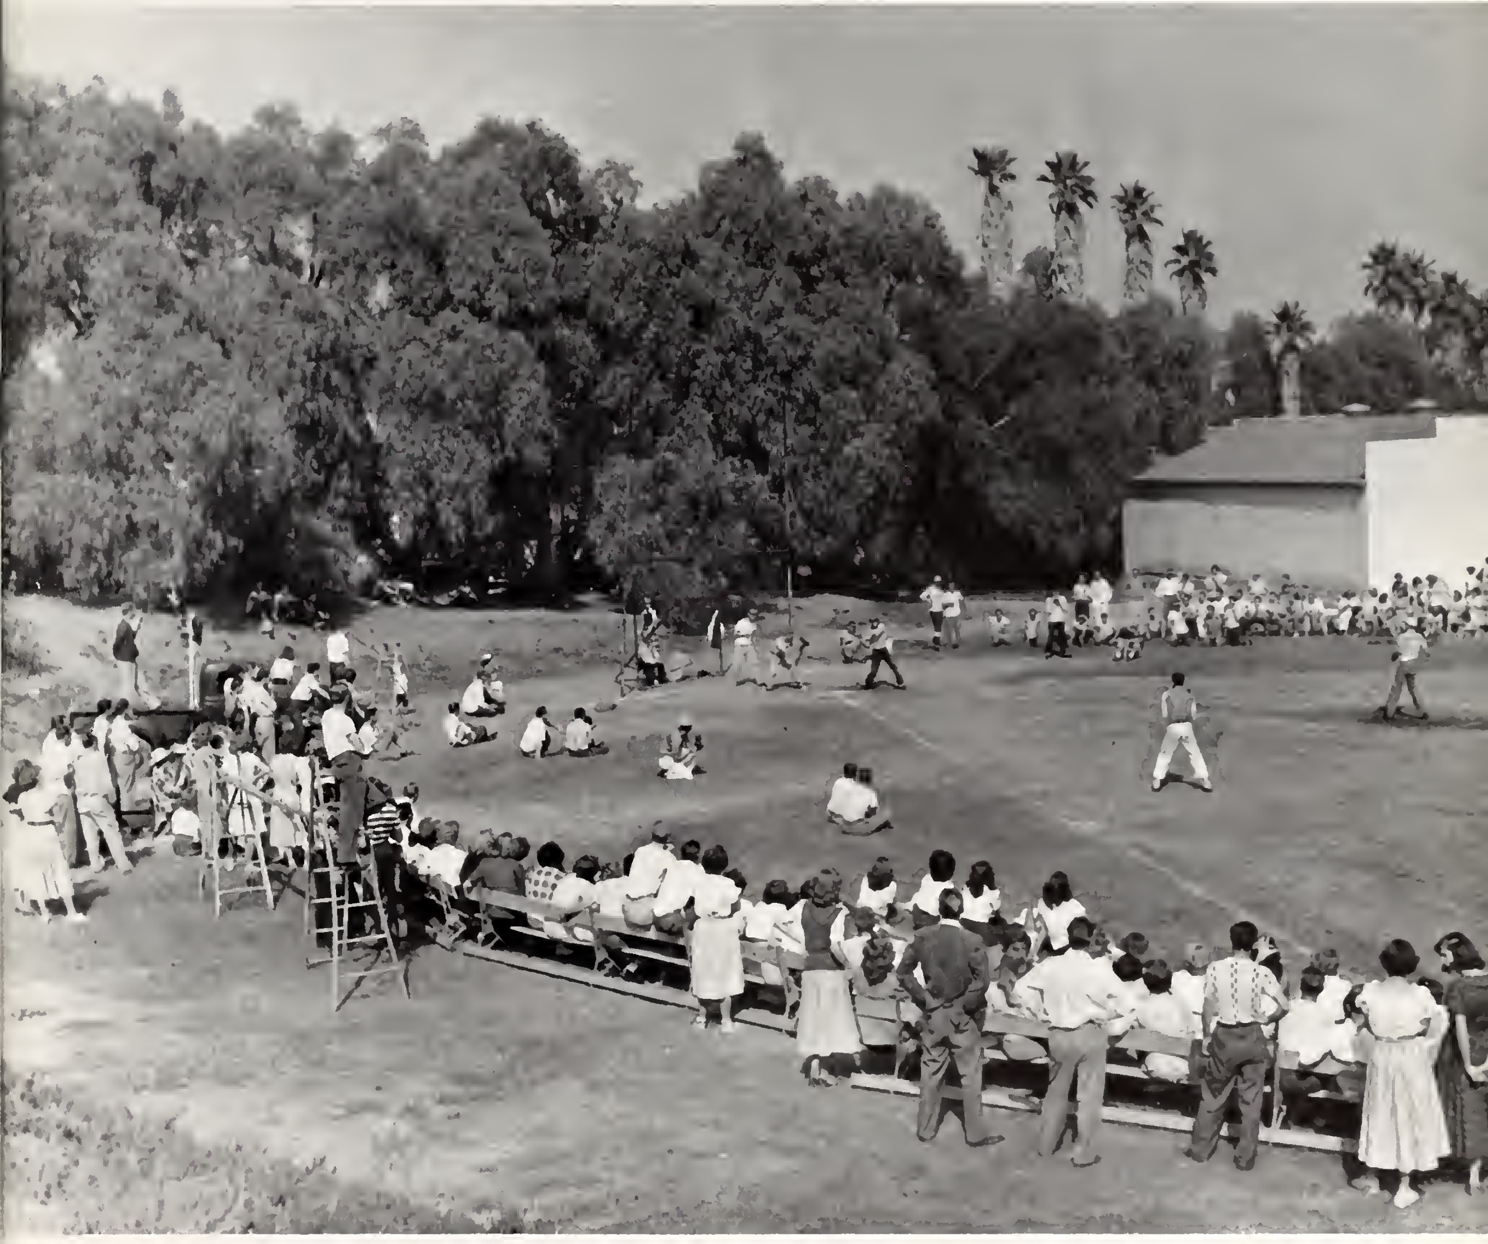
Where's the batter? Where's the ball? Where's the base? . . . perplexing questions for Catherine Rhymes, Carolyn Scott, and Geri Garcia.

It's a hit . . .
with Dell Jackson
at bat.

All hands on the ball as the "Village Hornets" come through with another point.

For a game of water polo, or just a refreshing dip, the college pool helps make warm days cooler.

Campus Day spectators watch the Native Sons edge out a 2-1 victory over the Tourists.



College Means

Not only the college itself,
    but the community as well,
leaves its indelible impress upon the mind and personality of the student.
College life would not be complete without those Saturday night visits to nearby malt shops,
    or those afternoon buying junkets
        to Arlington and Riverside.
From these trips La Sierra Students return groomed for that formal dinner or sweatered and booted for that snow picnic at Big Bear.

CME Thanks . . .

La Sierra College

For

the Christian young people it has sent as students to our college. They are studying to become members of a professional team — a team dedicated to relieve humanity's physical and spiritual suffering.

L.S.C.-ites — 50 strong — came to our campus in '49. Nursing students Katherine Haffner, Lenora Jacques, and Betty Beach, together with dietetics student Jo Ann Lofgren, and medical students Houston Stevens and Robert Paddock, discuss with Robert Vannix a clinical observation.

We are indebted to LSC's pioneers, faculty and student body for the nursing, dietetics, technician, and medical students who are a credit to the denomination's youngest college. We hope LSC's men and women will continue to look to CME as a training center for greater service.
